

Voluntary Position – TREC GB Senior Rider Team Chef d' Equipe

On behalf of TREC GB, the International Riders' Working Group (IRWG) is seeking to appoint a Senior Rider Chef d' Equipe.

Candidates interested in the voluntary position are required to have a recent, clear DBS check. If a candidate cannot present appropriate evidence to confirm a recent, clear DBS check, then TREC GB will request a check on the candidate's behalf.

Candidates will be required to possess appropriate Insurance for instructing riders and horses. If suitable Insurance is not held, then a policy can be put in place via TREC GB's underwriters, at the candidate's expense.

Appointment of the Senior Rider Chef will be carried out by a formal group consisting of: one internationally experienced Senior Rider (who will be expected to liaise with their peers before the final selection process occurs); the Chair/Vice Chair of the IRWG; the Young Rider Representative on the IRWG and one other member of the IRWG (person to be confirmed). In the event of a 'tied vote' the Chair/Vice of the IRWG will have the casting vote.

The successful applicant will hold the position for two next two seasons to support Senior Rider participation in the Senior Rider World Championships in 2020.

Expressions of interest should be emailed to Dot Still (IRWG Senior Representative) at still.dorothy@gmail.com in the first instance.

Individuals expressing an interest in the post should include a brief indication of their TREC experience and reasons for applying for the post.

Closing date for applications is 10th January 2019.

The successful applicant will be informed by 30th January 2019.
