

Out&About

Photos and news from equestrian events

We want to hear from you

If you've been out competing and would like a mention in Horse magazine, email details of the show you attended and the class you took part in to joanna.browne@mytimemedia.com.

TREC POR at Petworth Park

Petworth, West Sussex

TREC fans enjoyed the beautiful parkland of the National Trust's Petworth House, while testing their orienteering skills.

The fun event was organised by the South East TREC Group and riders saddled up to follow a route that took them past the 17th century mansion house and through its grounds.

Caught on camera

1. Nicky Cameron (left) and Diana Morrison with Petworth House forming a stunning backdrop.

2. Plum (left) and Heather Godsell at the start with Rosalita, 22 and Sir Chancelot, 19. The mum and daughter hail from Rye in East Sussex and won the newcomers' pairs class.

3. Carefully studying the route map before they set off are pairs partners Katriona Phillips (left) and Lucy Allen. They were runners-up in the newcomers' section.

6. Sally Penson (left) and Fenella Grant canter their way into third place.
7. The team effort of Kate McMorris (left) and Karen Morton achieved a second place in the open pairs.
8. Celebrating victory in the open pairs, Diana Maclean (left) and Katie Holmes.
9. Forty two horses and riders took part, and raised money for The Humanimal Trust.
10. Katriona Phillips riding Willow. "The scenery was stunning and it was such a friendly event," she said.

